Your soon to be husband loves you so much that he asked you to spend the rest of his life with him. He already thinks that you are the most beautiful, smart and sexy woman alive. So go ahead... prove it.

As girls we have all heard it before, men are visual creatures. They LOVE the visual. Giving your man a little gift he will never forget as a wedding present will do more than confirm all the reasons he loves you. It will make him feel like he is marrying the sexiest woman alive.

Welcome to Bridal Boudoir.

Bridal Boudoir are tasteful sexy photos that are taken of a bride before her wedding day. Of course, every bride has their own definition of sexy. So, incorporating elements that are fun, flirty, and provocative is up to the bride herself.

Below are some tips to help make your photos pin-up worthy, as well as make your boudoir session enjoyable and perfectly planned.

Get Your Hair and Make-up Done:

Instead of stressing about doing your hair and make-up yourself, have someone else do it while you drink lots of water (make sure you eat too!) and relax.

His Favorite Parts of Your Body

Tell your photographer some of your fiancés favorite parts of your body. Maybe it's a tattoo on your lower back, your tummy or your legs. This way you can be sure they get some great shots he will love!

Remember that photographers can help highlight these assets instead of areas you would prefer to not be photographed. We can't all look like Giselle!

Clothing Choices

mental state you don't have to bare all for him to think you look hot.

Location to Shoot

Nothing is sexier than having shots of you in an area your groom will recognize. On your bed, in your kitchen, living room, or bathroom. If it's possible without getting your soon-to-be husband fired pictures in his office or on his desk might be just the place!

If you don't like the décor or esthetic of your home, then book a chic hotel room to use!

Feeling Sexy

Getting in front of a camera to pose in barely there attire can be extremely intimidating for some bride-to-bes! Enjoy a cocktail or a glass of wine before you begin, this will help calm your nerves and put you at ease.

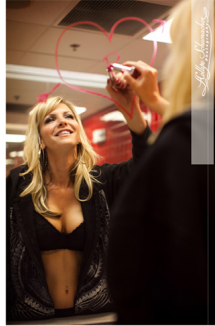

Before the day of your shoot purchase some magazines like FHM, Maxim or Details and rip out poses of models that you would like to replicate. Even grabbing your own Victoria's Secret Catalogue will have some great inspiration shots!
