Proudly the largest bridal show in the United States, the Arizona Bridal Show will be happening this Saturday and Sunday at the Phoenix Convention Center.

With over 450 of the Valley's wedding experts in the areas of bachelor and bachelorette parties, dresses, invitations, catering, music, flowers, and much much more, brides-to-be will have a great opportunity to get information for their upcoming nuptials.

At the Arizona Bridal Show, every aspect of your wedding is represented. By bringing everything under one roof, this exposition will end up saving you a great deal of time and money otherwise spent chasing down vendors.

Additionally, the bridal show offers the chance to win over $100,000 in prizes and coupons with a bridal gown giveaway every hour.

Another great aspect of the Arizona Bridal Show is its Couture Runway. Fashion shows will be happening all weekend featuring the latest bridal trends to help you pick the right dress for you.

From catering samples, to gown sales and more, the Arizona Bridal Show is an event all Valley brides-to-be should attend.
