

Thursday, 23 May 2019 14:25 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 May 2019 14:26

Here are 6 easy DIY ways to get your house summer ready.

Here are some good ones:

Locking File Drawer

Have you seen these 5x7 photo holders from the Container Store? According to my friends at The Home Project, this is their must-get item for storing very small stuff. While the piece is designed for safely preserving 5x7 photos, you can also use it for a first aid kit (ideal for road trips).

Mom's Moment: 6 Hacks for Getting Summer Ready

Written by Nadine Bubeck

Thursday, 23 May 2019 14:25 - Last Updated Thursday, 23 May 2019 14:26

---

hair accessories, phone plugs/cables, travel documents (passports), etc. The ideas are endless!

Create a Snack Caddy

This mobile "spinner" has dividers making for easy snack organization. Ideal for camp goers, you can pre-package dry items at the beginning of the week for ease in lunch packing. (It's also good for on-the-go snacking considering most kids are ALWAYS hungry.) Fits in a cabinet, and lets you bid farewell to bulky cracker boxes taking over your pantry! (Consider it a divided Lazy Susan.)

*Contact The Home Project and mention this article for an exclusive special!

Nadine Bubeck is a TV personality, fashion designer, author, blogger, and Scottsdale-based blessed boy mom.