Under quarantine or not, the show must go on. And this week is all about Easter! If your kiddos are feeling down in the dumps and missing their tiny tot social lives, this can be a great time to add unexpected excitement to life at-home.

Families around the globe are using Easter 2020 as a time to make new traditions. Children everywhere are counting down the days for the appearance of the Easter Bunny, and hope their behavior is worthy of a much-anticipated Easter Basket.

This year, Easter Basket must-haves have evolved to best fit family needs while respecting social distancing!

Spotted Bunny by Yottoy - This years' Easter is all about extra hugs and cuddles, no matter what age! A perfect way to feel extra love is with an adorable bunny with brown spots based on the endearing Spotty book by the beloved Margret & H.A. Rey, creators of Curious George. The huggable and soft toy 'hops' off the page and into children's arms for an enduring gift without a sugar rush. $26 at Yottoy.

Easter Peeps Soaps by Just Bubbly at Anytown USA - Washing hands is the theme of the season, and this is certainly the most stylish way to scrub! A perfect Easter Basket stuffer, marshmallow scented and an all-natural/ hypoallergenic. $8.50 at AnytownUSA.

Eggmazing Egg Decorator by Hey Buddy - Coloring Easter Eggs may be an age-old tradition, but this Decorator is changing the game. The clever design of the unit lets you to be a part of the decorating process instead of simply "watching and waiting" for messy dyes to work! Simply place a hard-boiled egg into the machine and turn it on. The machine holds and spins the eggs; you hold a marker on the egg as it spins, creating stripes, lines and other fun designs! $25.99. on Walmart.

Flying Bunny POPPER / Flying Chick POPPER by Hog Wild - Let's face it – everyone needs a kitschy Easter toy in their basket! This is a
