Moms everywhere (actually, women everywhere) are counting down the days for the much anticipated movie release of 50 Shades of Grey. Lucky for us Phoenixians, we can actually see the hot new flick before its opening date of February 13th.

Based on the bestselling erotic romance novel by British author E. L. James, the first book in the series was released in 2011 and the second and third volumes, Fifty Shades Darker and Fifty Shades Freed, were published in 2012. Fifty Shades of Grey has topped best-seller lists around the world, including United States. The series has sold over 100 million copies worldwide and has been translated into 52 languages. It's not surprising that the largest readership has been moms and wives around the world.

Celebrities have supported the book since it first showed up on Kindle so it's no surprise that A-listers like Kim Kardashian, Kendra Wilkinson, Whitney Port, Ryan Seacrest, Hillary Duff, Bethany Frankel and Bar Refaeli are pumped for the movie.

Kim Kardashian even had her very own private screening of the movie and took to twitter to express her love of the flick.

Since Kim said it's amazing, it has to be. So, we must see it. And, although we can't have a private screening in our home theater, we can go to a private VIP screening right here in Scottsdale. (Because, let's face it – we don't want to wait for Valentines day weekend – and surely we'd rather go with the girls than our V-Day dates that will probably consist of husbands and kids.)
