Spring has sprung....well, at least in the Phoenix-area! We're in the midst of sunny days accompanying Scottsdale Fashion Week, Spring Training and, of course, the Art of Ice Cream Experience! With schedules filled with fun events, soirees and various spring flings, making sure your fashion trends are on-point may seem daunting.

To help you, the fashionista on the go, look on-trend during this fresh, new season, we turned to our friends at Sophie & Trey. The online apparel store makes it easy to look cute AF, without breaking the bank!

Here are some of our go-to looks for this season in the Valley:

Art of Ice Cream -When exploring the eight ice cream themed rooms in this immersive, social art experience, one must be ready for the perfect, instagram-worthy pic! Our fashion pic is the Keyhole Wrap Top in Grape Shake paired perfectly with the Frayed Hem Distressed Skinny Jeans in Dark.

Spring Training - While not officially the greatest game on grass, Phoenixians love getting a sneak peak as their favorite baseball teams prep for the upcoming season! Casual yet stylish is the name of our game, so we especially love the Tie-Dye Duster Kimono in Mauve paired with your favorite denim!

Scottsdale Fashion Week - All the gals in-the-know will be hobnobbing at the notorious Scottsdale Fashion Week. With coordinating hair, make-up and your after-party plans, who has time for hours of shopping? The dresses and rompers at Sophie & Trey make fashion easy as 1-2-3! We are obsessing over the Into You Dress in Blush!
