

Scottsdale Couple Advances on American Idol

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Thursday, 03 February 2011 09:10 - Last Updated Thursday, 03 February 2011 09:38

EXTRA EXTRA!

Young Scottsdale lovebirds Jacqueline Dunford, 21, and Nick Fink, 19, hit a high note with judges on Wednesday night's "American Idol." Dunford belted out "Mercy" by Duffy while her boyfriend, Fink, sung a smooth version of "Sunday Morning" by Maroon 5 during their Austin, Tex., auditions.

The duo impressed all three judges—Steven Tyler, Jennifer Lopez and Randy Jackson—and were promptly given their golden tickets to Hollywood.