

The "New" Old Town

Written by Sarah Love
Wednesday, 12 October 2011 10:57 -

EXTRA EXTRA!

The "New" Old Town

You are Cordially Invited to a VIP Preview of the "NEW" Old Tucson

Life on the western frontier comes vividly alive in Old Tucson's new "Living History" experience. A newly created Native American Village built in the Hohokam Cochran Tradition and 5,000 sq. ft. Heritage Square provide the authentic backdrop for this entertaining and educational step back in time. Built by award-winning western production designer, Gracie Rudolph, the detailed Heritage Square sets transport visitors to a western town circa 1885-1900 for a glimpse of the daily lives of pioneers, cowboys and Native American tribes.

Old Tucson and the Metropolitan Tucson Convention & Visitors Bureau (MTCVB) invite you and your guest to experience the "NEW" Old Tucson at this special tourism-industry preview.

Enjoy character performances by Old Tucson's outstanding talent and appetizer stations featuring Smoked Salmon Canapés, Lobster Fritoles, Fresh Salsa tasting, Famous Jake's BBQ Brisket Sliders, and Chef Doc Russell's exquisite petit fours and more!

Date: Thursday, November 10, 2011
201 S. Kinney Rd., Tucson, AZ
85725

Time: 4:30-7 p.m.
Cash Bar: Premium Smoker Bar with Beer,
Wine & Cocktails

Cost: Complimentary VIP admission for you and your guest.
RSVP: Online at www.visitTucson.org/PartnerSVIP by Monday, November 7, 2011

An event collaboration of Old Tucson and the Metropolitan Tucson Convention & Visitors Bureau.