

"Remixing the Runway" Event at Clarendon Hotel 10/27 - Local Designers, Vendors and

Written by Karah Van Kammen

On Sunday October 27, Ashley Rebecca Management and Phoenix Glam Squad will make a splash onto the Valley fashion scene with "Remixing The Runway" at the Clarendon Hotel. The event will begin with a cocktail hour from 5p – 6p with the Fashion Show starting at 6p and followed by a fun after-party.

The Fashion Show will feature local designers, small boutiques, tattoo and musical artists. The showcase will include emerging designers like One Thought, Rejected Thrifts, Rayisa Mills Designs, and Woman's Touch. Emerging guest designers participating are ILand Apparel, Woman's Touch, Rayisa Mills Designs, Rejected Thrifts, One Thought, and Richknits IG. Local vendors will also be on hand featuring their products and services from 5pm-9pm.

The event will donate a portion of proceeds to the Worthy Institute Foundation, which is a private community organization that has been providing program and services to families, organizations and the community since 2005. Services include teen prevention, education, family support programs, cultural competency, diversity training, and community health initiatives that address health disparities among at-risk and underserved populations.

Ticket prices are $15 general admission pre sale; $20 at door; $50 VIP admission includes front row premium seating and entrance into after-party and can be purchased online. For additional information and tickets about Ashley Rebecca Management, visit: www.ashleyrebeccamgmt.com

