

The Jump Ball from Phoenix Suns Charities to Ignite the Night

Written by Karah Van Kammen

Phoenix Suns Charities annual gala, THE JUMP BALL is set to "Ignite the Night" on Saturday, March 1 at Talking Stick Resort.

This year, THE JUMP BALL will be headlined by a tribute to Michael Jackson, featuring Damian Brantley and the award-winning Las Vegas based Legends in Concert band and dancers.

In addition to the tribute band, guests will enjoy music from DJ Roonie G, appearances from the entire Suns team and coaching staff, a delicious dinner, and dancing. Fabulous items and experiences will be available through raffle, silent and live auctions.

The theme for 2014 gala "Ignite the Future for Arizona Kids" will come to life as the with elegant centerpiece decorations featuring crystals and flower arrangements set to "ignite" each table. Stacy and Jeff Hornacek will serve as the events honorary chairs.

For more information and tickets click here.

