

Best Custom Home Builders in Silverleaf

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

With views second to none, the exclusive community of Silverleaf is the Valley's premier luxury locale. The breathtaking development will soon boast the largest home in Arizona, which is currently under construction, with a whopping 100,000-square-feet. Thinking of building your own slice of paradise in Silverleaf? AZ Foothills is here to report four custom home builders that can help you achieve your wildest dreams in a home: Salcito Custom Homes, Sage Luxury Homes, Argue Custom Homes and Alexander Homes.

Salcito Custom Homes

For nearly three and a half decades, Salcito Custom Homes has been defined by consistency in service, attention to detail, project delivery, and consistent demand for its services. Salcito Custom Homes' projects are distinctly built with the highest quality building products and are unmistakable in their fit, finish, and timelessness. With 300 projects delivered Valley-wide and 120 within the past decade, Salcito Custom Homes' portfolio is diverse and encompasses luxury custom homes, renovations, additions, commercial buildings and tenant improvements.

"We pride ourselves on providing the highest level of customer service," said owner Anthony Salcito. "With a strong understanding of the market in Silverleaf, we take great pride in every aspect of making these houses homes for our clients."

Aligned for just over a decade with the quality required in Silverleaf, Salcito Custom Homes provides design build, general contracting and construction management services for both small and large scale new residential and renovation projects. The home builder also provides complete interior design services that include: construction documentation, construction administration, design, purchasing and installation of window coverings, furniture, art and accessories. In house, framing, trim carpentry and property management divisions are also an integral aspect of the company's unique ability to offer the most integrated and efficient luxury custom home building experience.

Building on a family heritage that spans more than four decades, Salcito Custom Homes continues to be guided by its firmly held values and by its commitment to its clients, projects colleagues and employees.

Sage Luxury Homes

Sage Luxury Homes was formed in Scottsdale, Ariz., in 2006. Since then, the company has built some of the most luxurious homes in Arizona and California, and has earned a reputation for providing the very best quality, performance and service in the homebuilding industry.

The team at Sage Luxury Homes knows that information and detailed planning are key to making good business decisions in the homebuilding process. Its team members have extensive knowledge and experience in a variety of construction disciplines, and works in conjunction with some of the Valley's best architects and interior designers to consistently deliver:

- Uncompromised construction
- Extraordinary design
- Timely performance
- Outstanding service
- Excellent value
- Vast product knowledge
- Warranted work
- Clean, polite and trustworthy workers
- Job sites cleaned daily
- Continuous on-site supervising

"Silverleaf is the epitome of luxury, and we are proud to build in such a prestigious community," said Sage Lentz, owner. "Building in Silverleaf is such an exciting process for both our clients and staff."

Clients of Sage Luxury Homes receive a complete outline of the company's building process, including a detailed cost breakdown, construction schedule and progress photography. Also included is project coordination, full-time project supervision and a complete accounting package that is flexible for individual banking needs. As a result, clients enjoy a well-defined and easy-to-follow process, and Sage Luxury Homes has the opportunity to deliver someone's dream home, on time and on budget.

There is a vision for the community with stringent guidelines for design and development that are upheld by ACH. Homes built in Silverleaf are constructed to a higher standard, which is what ACH strives to give its clients. Tom Argue has a desire to build homes that stand out, and Silverleaf is the perfect locale for clients to build their dream home.

"With a strong focus on our clients' needs, we work closely to ensure each question is answered," Argue said. "We go through everything with a fine-tooth comb, from the initial design process all the way up to move-in day. We believe that if you can dream it, we can build it."

Argue Custom Homes has constructed some of Arizona's grandest estate homes and is a DMB Realty Preferred Builder in Silverleaf. Each is unique to fit the client's needs and feature components to fit your personality, including elaborate recording studios, enclosed batting cages and handcrafted ceilings. It all starts with an authentic vision of style and design. ACH works with each client to design the best home for lot and environment. Whether it is a formal Mediterranean home built into the rocks or a Rural Mediterranean getaway that makes use of the mountain views, ACH delivers an unparalleled attention to detail and quality.

Alexander Homes

Alexander Homes was started in 1954 by Charles Alexander in Lake Minnetonka near Minneapolis, Minn. Since moving to Arizona in 1980, Alexander Homes has been the official builder of the Verde Communities and have built in all premier Arizona communities.

Today, Charles' grandson Tom Alexander continues the legacy of building stunning homes to exacting standards. Alexander Homes has built more than 1,200 custom masterpieces.

"Being a family-owned business, we like to treat our clients like they are our family," Tom Alexander said. "We want our clients to know they are in good hands and that we are here to build them a gorgeous home. Each of our homes in Silverleaf will display the distinctive style and unparalleled craftsmanship that have long been the hallmark of Alexander Homes."

Whether it's a custom home, semi-custom home, or luxury remodel, every home bears the Alexander Homes pledge of satisfaction. Homeowners receive detailed home care information along with a warranty that surpasses any custom home warranty in Arizona. Alexander Homes' determination to make every customer happy is one reason many have returned for their second and even third Alexander Custom Home.

Camelot Homes

Camelot Homes, an industry leader in luxury semi-custom homes since its inception in the 1960s, offers the services of their exclusive Custom Home Division – which, according to Managing Director Cammie Hancock Beckert, “was created as a result of ongoing requests by the public and our previous home buyers who were ready to embark upon the next step of home ownership by building a fully custom luxury Camelot home”.

By choosing Camelot to build their custom home, discerning buyers are given the advantage of our decades of experience building custom and semi-custom homes. As a custom buyer, you will be given the opportunity to work with their friendly and talented in-house designers and a team of carefully selected experts who will assist you along every step of the way from site selection to architectural design and development, to construction and exterior and interior designs. Whether you are already working with an architect, have a blueprint that is ready to go, would like them to design and draft a plan for you, or have fallen in love with one of our previous homes, Camelot can work with you to accomplish your goals while keeping within your budget and time constraints.

Camelot's custom home division will help you create the home of your dreams, while preventing you from experiencing many of the pitfalls common to those builders with lesser experience. Camelot's extreme attention to detail, knowledge of city and community guidelines and long-term relationships with the industry's finest craftsman who are familiar with their rigid standards, allows you to save time and money so you can actually enjoy the process of building your custom home.
