At Sierra Pointe in Scottsdale, Arizona, choice and comfort come hand-in-hand in this luxury retirement community, where first-class resort style living and that at-home-feel are enjoyed in both Independent Living and Assisted Living.

The amenities and attention to detail at Sierra Pointe Retirement Community welcome seniors to enjoy a variety of life enrichment experiences, keeping them young at heart and always connected to others. Daily scheduled outings and activities offer a social environment personalized to each senior's interests, with everything from daily movie showings in the community's onsite theatre, exercise classes for all fitness levels, such as Tai Chi and Seating Yoga, lunch outings and day-cations. The Sierra Pointe staff and residents enjoy each others company during weekly Happy Hour events as well, all making for a community where living and playing really go hand-in-hand.

That comforting, at-home-feel is also adhered to with scheduled trips to local shopping centers, grocery stores, banks and religious places of worship. And, Sierra Pointe's on-site nurses and Wellness Center provide convenience for residents in need of Doctor referrals, blood pressure screening and interest in discussing any health concerns. Luxury meets comfort in Sierra Pointe's Pinnacle Dining Room, where residents can enjoy freshly prepared delicious and healthy meals from the community's award-winning chef.

Life at Sierra Pointe is defined by the staff's everyday commitment to providing personalized services, a simplified yet full lifestyle, unparalleled quality of life, and most importantly, an experience that is 'a decision the whole family can feel good about.'
