

Luxury Apartment of the Month in Chandler: Parcland Crossing

Written by Jaclyn Weishar

Mark-Taylor's Parcland Crossing evokes the feel of a desert oasis yet is conveniently located near hot spots including Chandler Fashion Center and the San Marcos Golf Course. Occupants at this dazzling community can enjoy beautiful Arizona scenery while they take advantage of its easy access to everyday needs.

Live in the lap of luxury at this gorgeous community that boasts a swimming pool, spa and poolside cabanas that are enhanced by lush desert landscaping and a picnic area with barbecue grills. You can stay productive with the business center and 24-hour fitness facility, which is complete with individual workout stations, TV and even a yoga room. On top of these impressive amenities, you can also hang out in the cyber cafe or clubhouse with a social lounge and pool table.

With rates starting at $825, Parcland Crossing provides 10 floorplans to meet your needs with one, two and three bedrooms and nine-foot ceilings with fans. This apartment complex features attractive granite kitchen countertops, a stainless steel double sink and black-on-black appliances, washer and dryer and spacious walk-in closets. Plus, you have the option to choose a private detached or attached garage, laundry room and Roman soaking tub to relax in.

Parcland Crossing is located near the San Tan 202, making life simple and accessible to places all over the Valley. The gated community is also close to major employers including Wells Fargo, Intel, Chandler Regional Medical Center and Microchip Technology.

For a limited time only, Parcland Crossing is offering a special that includes up to one month free on select one and two bedroom apartment homes. For more information or to schedule your personal tour at Mark-Taylor's Parcland Crossing, please visit www.mark-taylor.com/arizona/parcland-crossing/.