

Flagstaff's Pine Canyon

Written by Victoria Fouts

The natural beauty of the outdoors meets luxury living in Flagstaff's private golf community, Pine Canyon.

Exclusive and luxurious, the private golf community of Pine Canyon is hidden away in the beautiful Ponderosa pines of Flagstaff. Residents can enjoy a family- friendly community with countless amenities and an unending supply of things to do outdoors. Nearby hiking and biking trails encourage an outdoor lifestyle while the homes and accompanying facilities provide a relaxing retreat from nature with the high quality luxuries found indoors. Nature and elegant living blend together seamlessly in Pine Canyon, reminding its residents that it truly is possible to have the best of both worlds.

For those who love the game of golf, there is no better place to take up residence. The community is composed of 600- acres with a stunning, award-winning golf course designed by the famous course architect Jay Morrish. The gentle and perfectly manicured slopes of the green are surrounded by the natural towering pine trees native to Flagstaff while rugged mountains flesh out the background. Overall, the course boasts 18 holes with a minimum of six tees at each hole, allowing players of all abilities to participate. The Golf Club Membership includes access to all Pine Canyon amenities and provides access to exciting social events and activities sponsored by the community each month. Amenities include the elegant Clubhouse, Camp Pine Canyon for children, a fitness center and spa, tennis courts, parks, hiking trails, a concierge desk, and the famous golf course.

The homes found in Pine canyon incorporate the charms of rustic mountain living while giving it a luxurious update. While searching for a home, buyers can look into a variety of styles such as the townhome subsection of Elk Pass, the Mountain Vista Condos, Deer Creek Cabins, Creekside Village Homes, or even the opportunity to construct a custom home. Each style offers a spectacular view of the outdoors and ample square footage. Some homes are available for lease. To find out more about the golf community of Pine Canyon, call the sales office at 866.652.7329. www.pinecanyon.net