Who needs Ikea (although, they do have pretty nifty things) when you have a Valley full of antique shops? Decorating your house with one-of-a-kind vintage treasures, family heirlooms and rustic furniture is a great way to give old items a second chance of life (not to mention they are a great conversation starter among friends). So, in with the old and out with the new! Because the old never looked so beautiful and timeless before. Happy antiquing!

Tattered Nest {Vintage Marketplace}

Located in Phoenix, Tattered Nest is an absolutely adorable shop full of shabby chic and vintage treasures from different vendors' "nests." The Vintage Marketplace has a beautiful water fountain that sits up front and center of the store, welcoming visitors as they come in, and has two stories decked out in fabulous finds. Tattered Nest is open on the second and fourth weekends of each month, which means new items are constantly going in and out of the doors. For all you antique addicts, you should consider signing up for Tattered Nest's "VIP" membership. VIP shoppers get early entry on Thursday from 9 a.m. - 12 p.m. and will get special shopping discounts the last two hours on Sunday. Hurry in and give these treasures a new nest to flock to. ### Audrey's

Audrey's is owned and operated by Erin Vetnar and her daughters Alexa and Ali in Phoenix. This mother-daughter team is dedicated to creating a vignette-inspired environment where visitors can meet vendors as they bring their latest pieces to the store. Come in, spend time with friends, and treat yourself to something fabulous where you'll find wonderful treasures influenced by all things, French, retro, industrial, vintage, runky and much, much more! Audrey's is filled with all types of doo-dads, old and new. <https://sites.google.com/site/audreysinaz>.

Everything Goes

Located in Phoenix, Everything Goes has one-of-a-kinds and hard-to-finds! The store occupies three storefronts and is a conglomeration of shop-owned merchandise and consignment items. Every nook and cranny is filled with stunning furniture, clothing, old toys, collectibles, jewelry, shabby chic décor and much more. Hurry in fast, because everything really does go, and it goes fast. www.facebook.com/everythinggoesaz.
