

La Maison Interiors Opens September 1st

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Boutique showroom offers exclusive home furnishings from around the world and award-winning design services.

La Maison Interiors opens its doors on Thursday, September 1st, in North Scottsdale. The architecturally designed showroom at the corner of Scottsdale Road and Kierland Blvd. features 27,000 square feet of comfortably chic home furnishings and accessories from around the world and an award-winning design studio.

With a focus on today's lifestyle, La Maison Interiors presents various looks: Casual European; Classic Contemporary; and Urban Transitional, perfect for loft and studio living. The carefully selected furnishings and accessories are unique and well-designed, creating a sophisticated and fresh mix of fabulous finds. From beautifully upholstered seating to sleek, modern beds the showroom expresses today's silhouettes and trends as inspiration for clients to discover their style.

With almost forty years in the furniture industry, proprietor Alan Reinken is thrilled to offer exclusive, quality furnishings. "Our worldwide travels and shopping to find unique furnishings for our diverse Sonoran lifestyle is the result of listening to the needs and desires of clients over the years," says Reinken. "We are excited to share our discoveries to create stylish homes in Arizona and beyond."

The award-winning staff of designers at La Maison Interiors offers a range of personalized services from furniture selection, space planning, and audio/visual coordination to custom window designs, cabinet specifications, and complete custom home build. "We think of ourselves as a design studio with a fabulous showroom", says Design Director, Davinder Chawla. "We have all the resources to help clients discover their style."

La Maison Interiors is located at 15450 N. Scottsdale Road; Scottsdale, Arizona 85254; 480 948-1144. Hours are 10am -6pm Monday thru Saturday and Noon to 5pm on Sundays. www.lamaisonaz.com
