

A Scottsdale Party-Like-a-Rockstar Home For Sale

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Friday, 23 September 2011 13:34 - Last Updated Monday, 26 September 2011 11:03

If you like your privacy, love to entertain and have an appreciation for contemporary there is only one home in the Valley for you.

Located in Glenmoor on the 17th fairway of world famous Troon Golf Course, this 5800 square foot home lives like a party. There are five patio viewing decks, 360 degree views of Troon Country Club, mountain and city lights. It's positively the most romantic home you will ever be in. A negative edge pool reverses towards the family room for full view and spa feeling. This home has a romantic dining room that seats 14, a spacious circular great room with built in bar and expansive wall of glass, gourmet kitchen with pass thru bar, pool table room, music loft, movie room, private office, work out room, guest room, extra bedroom and a master suite that boasts two full walk in closets, spa tub with a garden view and wrap around shower. There is plenty of storage as well and we'll even throw a bottle of Crystal for celebrating!

Great room looking at built in bar

Media room full theatre seating

Dining room overlooking outdoor dining area/fire pit

Master suite

A Scottsdale Party-Like-a-Rockstar Home For Sale

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Friday, 23 September 2011 13:34 - Last Updated Monday, 26 September 2011 11:03

Pool/Deck View

Backyard View; Golf Course, Pinnacle Peak

Listing Price: 1.6 Million.

For more information on this listing call Kris LaCroix with Sotheby's International at 602-527-1985.