I had an incredible afternoon touring Paradise Peak with Maverick of Supreme Auctions. The luxurious, modern estate is situated on 40 acres on Mummy Mountain and boasts stunning 270 degree views of Scottsdale and Sonoran Desert. This home was previously listed for $27 Million and will be sold at live auction with no reserve to the highest bidder on February 28, 2013.

This 12,860 square foot home is surrounded by desert gardens designed by the internationally acclaimed residential land architect, Thomas D. Church. The Venetian plaster walls, Travertine floors, exotic woods, fine marble, slate and granite surfaces, 18 foot high ceilings, telescoping doors, and custom hand crafted cabinetry create luxurious living spaces. The 55 foot game room with full kitchen and theatre room was my favorite!

Features are numerous and also include:

Seven Bedrooms, Twelve Bathrooms, Six Fireplaces, Three Jetted Tubs.

Large Chef's Kitchen with two dishwashers, two warming drawers, two sinks, double ovens, Sub Zero refrigerator and freezer, Viking Range. Gym and Master Office that features floor to ceiling glass walls that provide 180-degree Valley and Mountain views.
