Edward Cullen. Made you look, Twilight lovers! However, for the second installment of Stephanie Meyer's supernatural saga, it's about the werewolves, not the hunky bloodsuckers. And some hot promo photos for the movie have hit!

These shots of the werewolves, Paul, Sam, Jared and Embry from the second film, have just been released. We'll always think of Edward as our dreamy vamp, but man, these guys are smokin! The second chapter features the star Bella's friend Jacob and his adolescent friends as they turn into werewolves, one by one.

If these shirtless animals weren't enough great news, Twilight fans have even more to look forward to. Twicon, the first-ever Twilight convention, is being held this summer! The Sheraton Dallas hotel will host the scary sesh from July 30 to August 2. There'll be some highly-concentrated Hot Topic action up in TX that weekend. Here's proof- a main sponsor is Manic Panic, makers of day-glow hair dye. Convention activities include enjoying music from "Twilight-inspired bands", Twilight viewing parties, panels and breakout sessions to discuss "Biology of Twilight, like the properties of venom", a "Volturi Masked Ball" and "special guest presentations". Sounds like a real scream!

We're so proud of Valley resident and Twilight author Stephanie Meyer. She's gone way past helping teens fall in love with reading. She has weirdos across the globe uniting in hotel ballrooms over color contacts and fake blood.
