There's no such thing as a free lunch- or is there? Geordies at the Wrigley Mansion is giving Valley residents a bang for their buck with the "Pay What You Think Is Fair" lunch.

No kidding! Their menu states "We agree that life has been unfair to most of us lately, so we have decided (in our small way) to give back some fairness." What a sweet deal! Guests are given a menu with "$0" next to every item and are asked to pay what they think they should. If your steak is bomb, toss 'em a few extra bills. We tried it yesterday and had an awesome time. The "Pay What You Think Is Fair" lunch will continue on until people stop being fair.

How generous of them! Be sure to return the favor with a generous tip.
