Guess which Valley newscaster has her debut co-hosting Regis & Kelly this Thursday?

You guessed it- Tram Mai from Phoenix's NBC 12!

The fun news anchor (who was seen in the May AFM Love Issue with husband Stephen!) will be co-hosting the August 20 show with Regis Philbin.

Mai won the seat on Live with Regis and Kelly through a contest NBC 12 nominated her for. She submitted a video after she made the Top 20 for the Regis & Kelly Web site, reporting live from numerous Arizona landmarks. She was shown running in triple-digit heat, climbing Piestewa Peak, cleaning up after elephants at the Phoenix Zoo and batting at Chase Field.

The video proved to be a lot more fun than her competitors'. That, paired with endless Twitter and Facebook campaigning from her fans, sealed the deal and won her the contest and spot on national TV.

Set your TiVo's for Thursday!
