As wedding planners, we pay attention to every detail in a wedding. One of the ways to be creative and add a pop of fun to any event is with the escort cards. Here are some unique escort card ideas that we have used for past weddings.

Paper Flowers

At this wedding, the bride chose a color palette of navy blue, purple and red. Idieh design created and printed the cute lavender escort cards with navy blue ink. We used all purple paper flowers everywhere except for a small strip of red paper flowers down the middle. It was so fun and most of the guests commented on how creative and cute it was.

Love of Succulents

These little, cute succulents were so beautiful all displayed together. Celebrations in Paper created the name posts for each succulent and they were tied with some terra cotta colored raffia.

Lending to the rustic feel of the entire wedding, we used this shabby chic shutters to hold the escort cards created by idieh design.

Hoop Dress on Models

Probably the most creative way we have ever displayed escort cards, we hired models from The Agency Arizona to display the escort cards on their hoop skirt which was created by Flora Bella.

Cute Bags

These cute polka dot envirosax were actually used for a baby shower, but you could do something similar for a wedding. The cute tags were created by idieh design and tied onto the bags with a white ribbon.
