Are you in the process of planning your wedding? Are you stressed? If those answers are yes, than we have a solution to make your life stress-free while still helping you plan a magnificent wedding! Experience the romance of Sassi on Sunday, April 15, 2012! Join Arizona Foothills Magazine as we venture into an amazing day at Sassi for their Wedding Open House from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm! Learn more about why Sassi is the perfect place to tie the knot.

Sassi is an impeccable location to have your wedding. Sassi combines breathtaking views and old world architecture. The beautiful landscaped courtyards, trees uplit with white lights, fountains, and spectacular views of Pinnacle Peak, make it an amazing location to exchange vows.

Next Sunday, the open house will be filled with amazing decor to demonstrate just how romantic a wedding at Sassi can be. Sassi have invited the best florists, photographers, and entertainment for couples to speak with. These firms are professional and want to make dream weddings become a reality! There will even be vendors from linen, area hotels for out of town guests, transportation and more!

Couples are able to enjoy appetizers, pasta, wedding cake, and gelato while meeting the most talented staff that Arizona has to offer. These tastings are a sneak peek at what the couple's wedding could be like. At Sassi, couples are able to customize delicious wedding menus based on budget, date and number of guests.

Lovebirds can sip on sparkling prosecco and relax when planning their wedding at Sassi! What can brides look forward to if they have their wedding at Sassi? Well, to make things go smoothly for the big day, Sassi will be providing a personal server or "shadow" to assist the bride and groom. The newlyweds will even have their own private event service staff, chef and event manager to coordinate every detail.

Come check it out April 15, 2012! We hope to see you there!
