Just like everyone else in the bridal party the flower girl and the ring bearer are very significant to the bride and groom. It is truly captivating to see a beautiful young bride kneeling down to talk with the children who hold a special place in her heart. Both the flower girl and ring bearer are very important during the wedding ceremony since following behind them is the beautiful bride herself.

Through a little girls eyes a bride is beautiful and signifies a modern day princess who was lucky to have found her prince charming. It is important to try and let the flower girl feel just as beautiful as the bride standing in her gown.

Jujus Tutus is a wonderful Etsy Shop that has been featured on TLC's Four Weddings and the chic wedding blog, Wedding Chicks! Shop owner and designer Julie offers a wonderful selection of flower girl dresses. Her gorgeous dresses capture the innocence and beauty of a little girl. These adorable dresses are also perfectly priced and you'll be content with this fabulous product.

The ring bearer is also important a traditional wedding ceremony. The ring bearer represents the union between the bride and the groom since he is the one who carries the wedding rings. It is important that a ring-bearer is outfitted in something that captures a boys youth and naturally fun spirit of a young boy. Tadpole and Lily offers fun neckties and bowties that are handmade with kids in mind! Whether the wedding is

It's obvious that what makes a ring bearer so darn cute is that he represents a young man in his youth. So that's why nothing is cuter than when a little boy puts on a bowtie and walks down the aisle like a man. Bella and the Beau is a fun Etsy Shop that offers 'lil guy neckties and bowties for the traditional but modern wedding.

A classic tie for a classic little guy!
