How do people plan weddings before the days of Pinterest? It seems such a small idea to create dashboards for every aspect of your wedding, but such is how we consume content online. You have the ability to search the internet from any location while saving images along the way. Plenty of boards have already been created so you can copy other people's ideas or combine concepts to make something completely original.

Help may seem like an odd choice for wedding planning advice, but it's a fantastic way to find vendors. Unfortunately, there are plenty of companies that take advantage of couples, so make sure you go with that and true vendors. Your brides, brides, brides, and photographers can often be found on Help. Read through their reviews and make sure that customers have had pleasant experiences. The last thing you need is to stress over the idea of being ripped off.

Be sure you're then sit down and read with them so you know everyone's on the same page.
