

Picture Perfect Backdrop: Desert Botanical Gardens

Written by AZFoothills.com

Tuesday, 02 February 2016 10:50 - Last Updated Tuesday, 02 February 2016 11:19

The beautiful thing about being in Arizona – is there is a gorgeous desert all around us. And, that is the best place for perfect scenery for a unique backdrop.

Imagine getting married in a place that seems almost magical. A place, that has gorgeous plants, flowers and cacti from all makes and sizes. This place can set as the background for one of the most unique weddings that anyone can be apart of. At the Desert Botanical Gardens, all of this is at your fingertips and can offer you the most amazing backdrop for any wedding, any time of year.

Centrally located in the heart of breathtaking Papago Park, the Desert Botanical Garden is a naturally beautiful setting for any special day. Wedding parties can choose from open air pavilions, outdoor terraces, conference rooms, historic banquet halls, and scenic courtyards. The garden offers exquisite settings for daytime or sunset ceremonies and/or receptions for weddings of 10-250 guests. Whether your guest list is large or small, choose from perfectly matched indoor and outdoor locations for your Desert Botanical Garden wedding or special event.

Another bonus of the gorgeous Desert Botanical Garden is the flexibility. If you are looking for a perfect place for unique engagement photo sessions, whether this is the place that you pick for your big day or not. These photos can be set during general admission hours, just plan ahead with the Gardens office.

This is the perfect place to have that under the stars look for your wedding. And, with a place that offers so many beautiful plants and flowers – how do you say no?

The Desert Botanical Garden is open 365 days a year, so there is no shortage of perfect days for a wedding in the Desert Botanical Garden.

For more information, visit www.dbg.org.

Written By: Kelly Potts

