

MLB All-Stars to Parade through Phoenix

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Thursday, 30 June 2011 12:44 - Last Updated Thursday, 30 June 2011 12:51

EXTRA EXTRA!

On July 12, your Major League Baseball favorites will take to the downtown streets of Phoenix for the nationally televised Parade of All-Stars right before the 82nd All-Star Game.

The parade, which will begin at noon and be broadcasted on MLB Network, wil feature many baseball All-Stars with Luis Gonzalez as the Grand Marshal as they cruise in Chevrolets down an approximately 1,750-foot long red carpet from 1st St. and Jefferson, down 4th St., ending at Chase Field.

Presented by Chevrolet, this MLB All-Star Red Carpet Show is an exciting chance to see MLB All-Star greats and players up close and personal before the main event.

Before the All-Star festivities in a few weeks, get your copy of Arizona Foothills Magazine's July issue with the Grand Marshal and All-Star Ambassador Luis Gonzalez on the cover!

