

MAUI DOG best hot dog in Arizona!

Written by Sarah Love

Tuesday, 01 November 2011 13:23 - Last Updated Tuesday, 01 November 2011 14:56

EXTRA EXTRA!

Ever had a craving for some tropical flavor? Wanted to try a new place for lunch? Well folks, here it is...

Maui Dog, a local favorite. It is the most original hot dog around, combining the "All-American" dog and bratwurst with a tropical flavor from the Hawaiian Islands. So many options available, from hot dogs, bratwurst, sliders, and vegetarian options too. There is a specialty menu with different Island flavors, or a build your own menu. The toppings are blended with spices and a fresh fruit combination of mango, coconut, pineapple or banana. Talk about something you've never tried before, this local restaurant has already caught the attention of many people around the valley, winning best hot dog 2011 in Phoenix New Times. Maui Dog is worth checking out if you already haven't!

Located at:

3538 E. Indian School

Phoenix, Arizona

85018

Contact info:

(602) 464-3063

mauidogrocks@yahoo.com

<http://mauidogrocks.com/>