EXTRA EXTRA!

Stuff Stockings With a Tasty Pre-Sale Special

$20 gets you face time with Travel Channel stars and a Travel + Leisure subscription

Who: Foodies, philanthropists, chefs, gift givers and festive revelers eagerly awaiting the advent of the 2012 festival.

What: Usually stockings and holiday cards are so restrictive; there's only so much that will fit inside. Not this year. The Scottsdale Culinary Festival is cramming your choice of Adam Richman or Andrew Zimmern, a year subscription to Travel + Leisure and a day at the Great Arizona Picnic into a single, overstuffed envelope for only $20. That's not a typo, $20.

The package will only be available to the first 400 people during this limited time presale. Only 100 tickets per show will be available. Show dates are April 21 and 22. The sale begins Wednesday, December 14th and runs through Saturday, December 24th.

The ultimate culinary experience gives you the option of seeing Adam Richman or Andrew Zimmern at the 34th Annual Scottsdale Culinary Festival, along with Picnic entry and a Travel+Leisure subscription. Let's do some quick math here. Tickets to see a Travel Channel star at the Scottsdale Culinary Festival are normally $40 each, tickets to the Great Arizona Picnic are $10, and a subscription to Travel + Leisure costs $19.99. That's a savings of almost $50.

The Scottsdale Culinary Festival is known for pairing high-profile celebrity chefs with home-grown local talent, rounding up the best of the best from near and far. This year's line-up takes the cake with live performances by two of the Travel Channel's most prominent stars. Adam Richman, of Man v. Food, and Andrew Zimmern, of Bizarre Foods, will be performing live all weekend long at the Great Arizona Picnic, showcasing their unique and renowned culinary fervor. Every year eager stomachs raise funds at the festival which are donated to numerous arts and arts education charities, with over $3.5 million distributed since 2002. With the help of your appetite, we can raise even more in 2012.

When: Stocking Stuffer Ticket Sale: Wednesday, December 14th through Saturday, December 24th, 2011.
