

Rock 'n' Roll and Exercise!

Written by Sarah Love

Wednesday, 11 January 2012 13:33 -

EXTRA EXTRA!

The P.F. Chang's Rock 'n' Roll Marathon and 1/2 Marathon is back to help welcome in the new year.

Get up bright and early on Sunday, January 15 to help cheer on the runners as they attempt to take on either a full marathon (26.2 miles) or a half marathon (13.1 miles). The full marathon will start at CityScape in downtown Phoenix and the half marathon will start at Mill Avenue and Third street. Rise and shine, the races both start at 7:30 a.m.!

Entertainment will be in no short supply, with live bands and cheerleaders at every mile of the course, charity teams, a finish line festival and a great concert headlined by The B-52s.

The finish lines will be located at Packard Drive, between ASU's Sun Devil and Sun Angel Stadiums. Here are the major road closures so you can avoid some traffic.

- 7th Avenue Northbound from Washington Street to Missouri Avenue
- Indian School Road from 48th Street to Goldwater Boulevard
- Camelback Road Eastbound from 24th Street to Arcadia Drive
- 48th St. from Indian School Rd to McDowell Rd and Northbound from McDowell Rd to Van Buren St.
- Priest Drive from Van Buren Street to Center Parkway
- Mill Avenue from University Drive to Rio Salado Parkway
- McDowell Road Eastbound from Scottsdale Road to Hayden Road
- University Drive from Rural Road to McClintock Drive
- Rio Salado Parkway from Ash Avenue to Packard Drive