EXTRA EXTRA!

We just got word that a the Pardes Jewish Day School's 2nd annual Panther Classic 'Bike, Run, Walk for Healthy Living' raised a record amount of $30,000 to support athletic programs and youth sports. What an accomplishment! Keep up the great work!

Here are some Highlights:

- More than 350 participants
- Participant completed either a 15-mile bike ride or a three mile family-friendly walk/run
- Triple ($30,000) the funds raised from last year

"We were completely thrilled with this year's turnout," said Derek Zappa, the school's athletic director. "The success of the event will greatly benefit our kids."
