

New Crop of Shops at Scottsdale Fashion

Written by Sarah Love

Tuesday, 10 April 2012 16:35 - Last Updated Wednesday, 11 April 2012 16:09

EXTRA EXTRA!

Scottsdale Fashion is proud to announce the welcoming of its six new picks to its already beautiful destination of retail and dining selections.

Caketini is up and running in the upper level Nordstrom Wing, offering sinful and gourmet cakes, cupcakes, truffles, coffee, and tea.

The all-new, Madewell opened near J. Crew April 3rd. This vintage-meets-modern inspiration goes from denim to downtown-cool clothing along with accessories of course. Each item is an easy going feel, great for anyone. Check it out here: www.madwell.com.

Opening the doors to their first-ever retail storefront, NightRider Jewelry is not just like any other jewelry; it's a true American brand. In the upper level of Macy's, this designer items which are liked by celebrities such as Johnny Depp and Alice Cooper, are master-crafted and inspired from rock n' roll and biker culture.

The luxury everyone knows of, Prada, is now open to the public Valley above Palm Court. This high quality brand has an innovative style and with it's fine men's and women's leather goods, footwear, eyewear, and fragrance add just another sophisticated approach to the mall.

Also open near Macy's is the frequently seen Stuart Weitzman. Inside the shop, find the exquisite collection of designer's handbags and footwear, seen on runways and red carpets. This designer's work is making headlines, and they are now available locally, here in Scottsdale.

Tommy Bahama is now open near Nordstrom. The upscale, tropical living retailer offers men's and women's sportswear, accessories, fragrances, denim, and footwear.

Scottsdale Fashion Square is located at 7014 E. Camelback Road Scottsdale, AZ 85251