

TLC's "Four Weddings" Features Phoenix Brides

Written by Kirstina Bolton
Monday, 16 July 2012 13:02 -

This Thursday, Four Weddings, the highly-anticipated reality show will premier on TLC at 9/8 p.m central. This premier is much closer to home as all four brides and weddings are located in Phoenix.

The premise of the show follows four brides with their own personal styles and traditions who agree to attend and judge each other's weddings on the basis of food, dress, venue, originality, and overall experience. The winning bride is awarded a five-star dream honeymoon. The premier will showcase all four Arizona weddings and the brides as they duke it out for the getaway of a lifetime.

Viewers can look forward to experiencing all kinds of unique wedding elements- an Elvis impersonator, bull riding and "flash mob" receptions, Cinco-De-Mayo wedding with an all-female mariachi band, and a walk down a plastic red carpet.

For more information, visit tlc.howstuffworks.com/tv/four-weddings