

Restaurant Chain Gives Three Million Meals for Charity

Written by Kirstina Bolton

Wednesday, 10 October 2012 09:14 -

EXTRA! EXTRA!

In an effort to feed the children of America, Romano's Macaroni Grill teamed up with No Kid Hungry to raise $100,000 to provide 1 million meals to kids. Yet, thanks to the dedicated support of bloggers, social media and just plain hungry folks who were willing to spare an extra dollar after their meals, the partnership exceeded their initial goal with more than $300,000 raised!

Now go celebrate the victory with a feast at Macaroni Grill.

To learn more, visit nokidhungry.org and www.macaronigrill.com.