

Forget Fruitcakes This Holiday Season

Written by Melissa Larsen

Thursday, 13 December 2012 10:58 - Last Updated Thursday, 13 December 2012 08:35

You know Christmas is near when Scottsdale's Los Sombreros rolls out its highly anticipated holiday tamales. Since 1994, owner Azucena Tovar has been whipping up these handmade treasures from scratch. The tamales are available through Dec. 23 and may be ordered 48 hours in advance. One tamale of each flavor is about $30; 12 tamales of one flavor is about $28; and the nine-item Noche Buena Dessert Sampler (three each of the different sweet tamales) is about $23.

Take a look at this year's mmm-inducing Los Sombreros tamale flavors:

- Green Corn
- Rajas Cheese
- Smoked Chicken
- Tomatillo Chicken
- Chipotle Pork
- Spicy Pork
- Red Chile Beef
- Beef & Cheese
- Chorizo & Black Bean
- Pineapple & Raisin
- Canela (Cinnamon)
- Chocolate

For more information, visit www.lossombreros.com.