EXTRA EXTRA!

We all know traveling can be stressful and more time consuming than we plan. We have all missed flights, get tired of eating airport food, and most of the time just want to get home. The good news is that Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport just got a little easier on those traveling pains, Tammie Coe Cakes will be opening Spring 2013. The cakes and treats will give the airport that homemade food feeling from cookies, cupcakes, to gorgeous cakes.
