

Country Band to Auction at Barrett-Jackson

Written by Melissa Larsen

Wednesday, 16 January 2013 11:50 - Last Updated Wednesday, 16 January 2013 13:18

Whether you are a country music fan, a motorcycle lover or a philanthropist, we've got some news for you. Popular group, the Zac Brown Band, represented by bassist John Driskell Hopkins, and Jack Daniel's will auction two Indian Chief Custom Motorcycles in partnership with Barrett-Jackson this week to benefit Camp Southern Ground. Camp Southern Ground is Zac Brown's summer camp for children with typical or special needs.

The Indian Chief Black Hawk Custom Motorcycle (lot 3005) is Thunder Black Smoke with Jack Daniel's paint work and Southern Hide leather. The Indian Chief Vintage Custom Motorcycle (lot 3005.1) is Pearl White with Jack Daniel's paint work and Southern Hide leather. (Southern Hide happens to make Zac Brown Band's leather vests and guitar straps, too.)

The auction is set to take place tomorrow at WestWorld of Scottsdale. www.barrett-jackson.com.