We already know that Dierks Bentley and OAR are set to take the stage at the Coors Light Birds Nest at this month's Waste Management Phoenix Open. (They perform Jan. 31 and Feb. 1, respectively.) Now, the Phoenix Open has announced that the Valley's own Roger Clyne & the Peacemakers (RCPM) have just been added to perform Thursday, Jan. 31 at the Coors Light Birds Nest. The Tempe-based band is a longtime local favorite, thanks to their musical blend of rock/pop/Americana/reggae/Mariachi, and will hit the stage around 8 p.m. They have opened for the likes of Johnny Cash and Kid Rock.

DJ Roonie G., Kelley James and Smasht are also slated to perform at the Coors Light Birds Nest. Tickets are available through <http://www.ticketmaster.com/>. General admission tickets are $35; VIP tickets are $150.
