One of the East Valley's most anticipated events is slated for June 1. Eastmark, the first new large-scale integrated community to launch in the Valley in 10 years, will hold a grand opening event from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, June 1. The event will showcase its first phase of residences and the first phase of the Eastmark Great Park.

DMB is planning a day of family-friendly festivities to kick off the grand opening, including music throughout the parks system, games and entertainment and activities for all ages. (Admission is free.) Guests will also have the chance to tour 14 new home models from seven homebuilders will be available to guests. www.eastmark.com.
