

Breast Cancer Benefit Concert in May

Written by Melissa Larsen

Thursday, 18 April 2013 13:04 - Last Updated Thursday, 18 April 2013 13:17

The Breast Cancer Society has announced a benefit concert, "A Night of Miracles", featuring the Motown Sound of Miracles, to take place May 4 at Phoenix's Comerica Theatre. Proceeds help local breast cancer patients and their families. Mari, the wife of Sydney Justin, lead singer of The Motown Sounds of Miracles, is a breast cancer survivor.

Mike Land and the Impact Church Band will open the show and surprise celebrity guest appearances are planned.

Appetizers and wine will also be served, and the band will be signing autographs. VIP tickets are $125 per seat. A purchase of a VIP ticket includes a seat in the first three rows and entrance into the celebrity meet and greet after party. All other tickets $38 to $53 per seat. Tickets can be purchased through www.ticketmaster.com or www.comericatheatre.com. VIP tickets can be purchased through www.breastcancersociety.org.