

Popular Valley Consignment Store to Open in Arcadia

Written by Jaclyn Weishar

Saturday, 18 May 2013 20:02 - Last Updated Wednesday, 22 May 2013 13:55

EXTRA EXTRA!

Arcadia residents will now be a hop, skip and a jump away from My Sister's Attic, the newest consignment store from Tess Loo, Ann Siner and Jenny Siner. Located at what used to be Fannin Interiors on 44th Street and Indian School, the newly designed store will open on Saturday, June 8, at 8 a.m. On opening day, you can take advantage of on-site consultations while you peruse the art, china and crystal, furniture and more at the 4,500-sq.-ft. store. You can also feel even better about your purchases, as a portion of your money spent that day will go to the Arizona Humane Society. For more information on My Sister's Attic, visit www.mysistersattic.com.