November 20-23 the annual SVS Sport Horse Expo comes to Scottsdale. The event will be for four days, from 8 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Guest speakers and various events make this a renown and enjoyable event for horse enthusiasts of all breeds. Guest speakers and clinicians such as: Dr. Martin Crabo of Chaparral Veterinary Medical Center, Julie Winkle a world renowned equestrian and judge, Buddy Uldrikson a cowboy and horseman who specialize in the breaking and development of young horses will be present.

Events include:

- Young Horse Free Jump Challenge - be impressed by a display of uninhibited young horses moving naturally and balanced over sets of obstacles.
- High Jump & Gymnastic Exhibition - watch the incredible heights horses can leap while observing gymnasts flip and twist through the air.
- Dressage Dancing Presentation - be amazed by graceful and talented human and equine dancers moving simultaneously across the same arena.
- Shopping - enjoy unique retailers and educational hot spots.
- Equine Clinics & Seminars - World class equine clinics and seminars by top professionals.
- Sport Horse Auction - The grand finale, starting at 3:00 pm Saturday afternoon - an auction of top quality sport horses followed by a charity auction. This auction attracts aficionados from across the globe!
- Family Activities - Sponsored by Horses Help: paint by number and discovering the equine skeleton and digestive system.

This year the Horse Expo will support five local charities: The Phoenix Dream Center Foster Care Program, Horses Help, Canter, Just World, and Scottsdale Community College. All of the proceeds each charity raises will go to that charity.
