To celebrate the newly renovated Echo Canyon Summit Trail at Camelback Mountain, its neighbor, Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain, has launched a "Race to the Top" Instagram photo contest. Climbers simply need to post their best Instagram photo from the summit and tag the photo to @sanctuaryaz_ with hashtag #sanctuaryrewards. Sanctuary will choose five winning photos and invite the photographers to enjoy their choice of a 60-minute Swedish, Therapeutic or Reflexology massage. The Instagram contest will run through Feb. 28, with winners awarded throughout the contest period.
