Not only is Amber Sabathia an amazing mother to her and CC Sabathia's {New York Yankees pitcher} children, she is an outstanding business woman. This mommy mogul started CCandy this past year and it has taken the MLB world by storm. Amber's inspiration for CCandy started when she could never find any cute MLB attire that her kids wanted to wear. Now with CCandy not only will Amber's kids be supporting daddy, they will be doing it in style! From hot pinks to bright oranges this adorable and unique brand is for kids of all ages.
