The Sedona Gallery Association (the Valley's AZADI Fine Rugs' David Neishabori is a member) has planned a special 1st Friday on June 6 from 5-8 p.m. It is free to the public and great way for people to escape the heat, support the Sedona economy which was hit due to the Slide Fire and enjoy a free performance in the sculpture Garden of the Goldenstein Gallery of the Diamond Down String Band (pictured) at 5 p.m. and renowned actor-artist Michael Horse at Turquoise Tortoise Gallery. The event includes wine, appetizers, lively conversation and more. All guests can attend free of charge and ride the Sedona Trolley, which does continuous loops to the Gallery Row and Uptown locations.
