

Troon Country Club to Host AZ Open and AZ Senior Open

Written by Melissa Larsen

Tuesday, 12 August 2014 15:01 - Last Updated Tuesday, 12 August 2014 15:05

Troon Country Club will host the PGA Southwest Section's 2014 Arizona Open and Arizona Senior Open.

Troon Country Club's elite golf course, touted as Jay Morrish and Tom Weiskopf's first ever design, has played host to the United States Mid-Amateur Championship, Arizona Open, Ping Pro Scratch, and the Merrill Lynch Shoot Out. The championship layout will once again challenge competitors of the Arizona Open held August 21-23, along with the Arizona Senior Open the previous week from August 13-14.

"The members and staff at Troon Country Club are excited to demonstrate what makes our club truly special," says Rich Carter, general manager, Troon Country Club. "Hosting the Arizona Open and Arizona Senior Open creates a unique opportunity for us to share our friendly, classic-casual atmosphere and the superb layout and conditions of our championship golf course with players and visitors alike."

Participation in the Arizona Senior Open and Arizona Open is available to both amateurs and professionals with a handicap index of 4.6 or less. For additional information on entry fees and to register to play in the event, visit www.southwest.pga.com/arizonaopen for the Arizona Open and www.southwest.pga.com/arizonasenioropen for the Arizona Senior Open.