This Valentine's Day, get ready to watch the beats drop at the Monarch Theatre. Five battle-ready DJs are looking to prove their supremacy as the top party DJ. The competitor DJs include: DJ OHM (Albuquerque), DJ Akshen (Phoenix), DJ Javin (Phoenix), Jeff Metcalf (Chandler), Blaze (Las Vegas), and DJ M2 (Phoenix).

The talent doesn't just stop at the spin table with the DJ's. Tree Special guest judges - Four Color Zack, DJ Shorkut and D-JR - will be in the house. They will determine the winner based on skills, originality and creativity, track selection and audience response/stage presence. The contestant with the highest combined score between all judges will be named the winner. The winner announced in Arizona goes on to the National Final event. The winner of the National Final event then goes to the World Final event.

Red Bull Thre3style pits the world's best DJs in a competition that values technical skill as much as the ability to thrill a dance floor. Competitors are judged on the dual platforms of technical ability and crowd reaction, and are given just 15 minutes each to prove that they're the best in the room. Judges work to a strict criteria that also marks DJs on their originality in song choices, confidence performing and mixing prowess.
