Maravilla Los Cabos, a planned residential community, includes custom homes and oceanfront condominiums located between San Jose del Cabo and Cabo San Lucas. The oceanfront property will be located on the waters of the Sea of Cortez and will reflect the surrounding cultural influences in Baja California including various elements of Mexican colonial influences in the architectural design.

This new luxury property has not officially announced its development plans nor its expected opening date. Azfoothills.com will feature updates when they become available. For more information, visit their website.
