With school sessions winding down and the promise of summer upon us, Phoenix is gearing up with dozens of fun activities and events that are sweeping the Valley this weekend, May 10 through May 12. Check out our full roundup of the best things to do this weekend, here:

Friday

Sun City Poms at Harkins Theatres

In honor of Diane Keaton's dazzling new film, "Poms," Harkins is celebrating the event at several theater locations, which will feature appearances, special performances and greet events with the Sun City Poms – a group of spunky, senior citizen women who have been shedding stereotypes and breaking barriers for almost 40 years. Just like the female characters in the film. Regular ticket prices apply to the event; event schedule times vary by theater location. For more information on this event, click here.

Arizona Diamondbacks vs. Atlanta Braves

The Arizona Diamondbacks will battle the Atlanta Braves at Chase Field this weekend. Ticket prices vary. For more information on game times and event details, click here.

Music of Led Zeppelin at Phoenix Symphony

While Led Zeppelin concert tickets might not be as easy – or as cheap – to get ahold of, no worries because the Phoenix Symphony is celebrating the famed musical icon in their own, unique way this weekend. The tunes are amplified by a full rock band, creator Brent Havens conducts vocalist Randy Jackson and the Phoenix Symphony as they capture Led Zeppelin's sheer blast. Ticket prices vary; the show begins at 7:30 p.m. For more information on this event, click here.

Saturday

Bike the Hidden Gems of Scottsdale

What better way to absorb the vibrant sights and gems of Scottsdale than by bike? Step out into Arizona's glorious spring weather and ride the sidewalks and backstreets of Scottsdale for a glimpse of some of the beloved city's best-kept secrets and hidden spots. Event tickets are $25; the event will run from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. For more information on this event, click here.

The Bash: Music and Craft Beer Festival

The Bash is a day filled with craft beer and live music at Margaret T. Hance Park in Phoenix. The Bash will feature up to four hours of craft beer tastings with more than 100 beers to choose from and music from Rancid, The Mighty Mighty Bosstones, Suicidal Tendencies, L7 and H2O. Admission tickets start at $39.50. For more information on this event, click here.

Urban Wine Walk

The self-guided tasting tour returns for its ninth year offering participants the opportunity to explore downtown, socialize, and experience the buzzing bar and restaurant scene. Sip, savor and saunter to 30 local bars and restaurants, and sample fabulous wines on a pedestrian-friendly tour of local eateries — all located along the light rail stretching from uptown to downtown. The cost is $2 to $3 per glass; the event will run from 1 to 6 p.m. For more information on this event, click here.

Experience Polynesia

Soak in the music and culture of the Pacific Islands with ukulele lessons, live Polynesian drumming, Hawaiian and Tahitian dance performances, and an 'uli'uli instrument-making craft at the Musical Instrument Museum (MIM). The event will take place from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; admission to the exhibition is included in museum admission. For more information on this event, click here.

Carry the Load Rally

The Carry the Load Rally provides an active way to connect Americans to the sacrifices made by military, veterans, first responders and their families. Their national relay team is traveling over 4,500 miles from Seattle to Dallas, with a stop in Phoenix, carrying the flag in an effort to raise awareness. The event will take place from 8:30 to 11 a.m. and will honor the efforts of those who sacrifice everything for us. For more information on this free event, click here.

Mesmerica 360: A Visual Music Journey

Music and art often provide a sense of peace, tranquility and renewal. At Mesmerica 360, attendees can experience the magic of a 360-degree immersive art and music cinema experience in the Arizona Science Center Dorrance Planetarium. Admission ticket prices range from $12 to $50; times vary by day. For more information on this event, click here.
