We know Labor Day's fun is difficult to outshine. Fortunately, Arizona is capable of non-weather-related surprises too! The weekend of Sept. 6 to Sept. 8 is challenging the Labor Day festivities with new art, tailgates, the best of entertainment and so much more.

Friday

Devils on Mill

Sun Devil fans, this Friday, head to Tempe's 6th Street Park to rally before the Arizona State vs. Sacramento State football game. From 4 to 6:45 p.m., students and community members of all ages are invited to gather in preparation to cheer on the Sun Devils. You do not want to miss this free-to-attend event filled with food, music, carnival rides, games and more.

First Friday at Roosevelt Row

Calling all Arizonians! The Friday behind our bragging to out-of-state friends is finally here. Roosevelt Row, worthy without, but so much better with, will be covered in art exhibits as it is every first Friday of the month. Two new exhibits will be making their debut, Pick and Play, accompanied by rock and roll music, will start at 6 p.m. at the FOUND:RE Phoenix Hotel. POPI, an examination of our current culture, will start at 7 p.m. at the New City Studio.

Mama Mia! at Fountain Hills Theater
